

Best Laid Plans

Verse 1

I was down on my luck
I'd just broken up
Everyday it felt the same

And all my good good friends
With their good intents say
That I should get back in the game

Verse 2

But I'd made up my mind
I would do my time
And get my feet back under me

Gonna clear my head
Live alone instead and
I'd get to it eventually

Chorus

But then... You see me and I see you across a crowded hotel room
And the best laid plans of mine I knew were doomed

Have you ever been so sure you know what's right,
But then life it takes a turn and shows you otherwise?

Verse 3

Now all my instincts say
Don't you let her walk away
But there's something I can't ignore

After all it's been
Only six short weeks since
I'd been in love the time before

Chorus

But then... You see me and I see you across a crowded hotel room
And the best laid plans of mine I knew were doomed

Have you ever been so sure you know what's right,
But then life it takes a turn and shows you otherwise?

[Bridge]

Chorus / Outro

But you see me and
I see you across a crowded hotel room
And the best laid plans of mine I knew were doomed

You see me and
I see you across a crowded hotel room
And the best laid plans of mine I knew were doomed

You see me and
I see you yeah
You see me and
I see you yeah
