

One more time with feeling

Verse 1

They say, that absence it tends to make
The heart grow fonder
But these days, I can't help but think to myself
That it's making yours wander

Pre-Chorus

Cause with late nights and an empty pillow
You say that work's been touch-and-go but
I don't know if I believe you
And then the phone rings and it's an empty line
And you say it happens all the time
It's nothing new, you swear it's true but...

Chorus

I'm not buying a word you say
While your eyes are so revealing
So how bout no more lies today
And one more time with feeling

Verse 2

Back when, I could always depend on your love
And your endless devotion
But since then, whenever you make time we spend
It just going through the motions

Pre-Chorus

And then the moon shines on an empty pillow
You say these times they come and go but
I don't know if I believe you
And then the phone rings, and it's an empty line
You say it happens all the time
It's nothing new, you swear it's true but...

Chorus

I'm not buying a word you say
While your eyes are so revealing
So how bout no more lies today
And one more time with feeling

Bridge

Make me believe
I want to believe again...

One more time with feeling

[Solo]

Chorus

Cause I'm not buying a word you say
While your eyes are so revealing
So how bout no more lies today
And one more time with feeling

No I'm not buying a word you say
While those eyes are so deceiving
So how bout no more lies today
And one more time with feeling
